A trade in hand finds gold in every land!

On 21 September 2019 companies, as well as crafts organisations throughout Germany, will invite to a National Day of Handicraft, to participate in actions, information events and competitions.

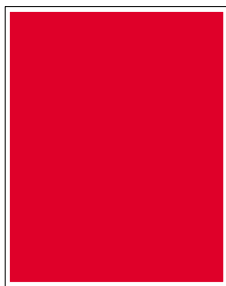

With a special publication on this day, BILD am SONNTAG will take the opportunity to show the entire diverse range of craft trades.

Stories drawn from life will show why working in trade is for many people much more than just a profession.
