We do stories that interest, engage and enthuse us personally. Because then the spark catches. Always with heart, always with care. And with a special twist, the extra thought and a twinkle in the eye.

We get feedback every day that proves to us:

This is what our community appreciates.

THE REAL WORD is the honest podcast - with the two journalists Nicola Erdmann and Julia Hackober from ICONIST. The podcast discusses the really important questions of everyday life and pop culture: What do boob selfies have to do with feminism? How much sex makes you happy? What to do when you start crying at work? And what can we learn from the TV Bachelor? THE REAL WORD is about life - as it really is. Personal. Honest. Close.

UNDERSTITIAL

• The understitial is integrated behind the content and only gradually visible by scrolling the page.
• The understitial viewing window remains unchanged in size while the user scrolls on a WORLD article page.
• Only a portion of the background ad becomes visible.
• The stored advertising medium is thus only accessible to the user during scrolling and thus reaches the highest level of attention.
The TakeOver Ad integrates a large-scale image in the background of the website.

This background is visible on all other advertising formats throughout the page, as these areas are made transparent.

Thus, the advertising medium is permanently in the visible area of the user.
INTERSCROLLER AD

- Lies behind the content and gradually becomes visible through scrolling.
- Fullscreen format that fits user-friendly into the content and offers maximum space for the advertiser.
- Delivery is carried out exclusively on MEW.
