WE EMPOWER INTEGRITY

Like other companies, we at Axel Springer pursue a culture of values. We live our Code of Conduct, always keeping an eye on the timetable. The stops?

_Equal opportunities
_Diversity
_Respect
_Speak up

In 2023, the Special Olympics World Games will host around 7,000 athletes from up to 190 nations. We would like to use this opportunity to make a lasting change in the perception and integration of people with disabilities. It is about more than the self-confidence of the athletes.

It is about acceptance, which is often missing in our society. And we hope to achieve this by increasing the visibility and reach of the SPECIAL OLYMPICS World Games 2023.

I'M IN! – PRESENTING

Nine days, 26 sports, thousands of athletes with intellectual and multiple disabilities. The Special Olympics World Games are the world's largest inclusive sporting event and will take place next summer in Berlin, Germany for the first time.

In the cross-media, editorial series “I'M IN!” (in BILD, BamS, SPORT BILD and the digital offshoots), we visit athletes who are taking part in the Special Olympics World Games. They talk about their lives, their sports and what is already okay in terms of inclusion and what still needs to be improved.

As an official partner of the Special Olympics, they act as presenters for the series and are integrated into the overall coverage.

Cohesion has never been as important as it is now.
Doing good, encouraging one another, being there for others - all this shows strength of character.
Unfortunately, the little heroes of everyday life often go undetected.
